FINANCIAL RESOURCES

- ▶ Our organisation has a dual financing system.
- ▶ We are mainly financed by membership fees. Our members pay a minimum annual contribution (48 Euro/ 24 Euro semester) for the processing of your application or the required documents.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

We can apply for public funding each year to finance part of the personnel and maintenance costs from public funds.

AGEyR receives public support every year (JUNTA DE ANDALUCIA, DIPUTACIÓN DE GRANADA, etc.).

However, it is not always the same amount and the same subsidies or support are not possible every year.

▶ HUMAN RESOURCES:

Our organisation consists of employees and volunteers
(currently 21 employees and 17 volunteers)

- ▶ More than 30 years of experience in the field of migration and Return

- ▶ Various factors:

Emigration and return counselling, return assistance and psychological support.

▶ HUMAN RESOURCES:

- ▶ Our organisation has also recently taken on more employees who, together with the very experienced staff, provide comprehensive advice and knowledge of the Emigration and return complement each other.
- ▶ Our employees are always up to date on new regulations and changes in the law that affect our business.
could concern.
- ▶ Our Board of Directors is also responsible for liaising with all public bodies and institutions in order to protect the rights of protect emigrants and returnees.

► NEEDS:

- Personal advice versus digital advice.
- In the last two years, since the pandemic, we have seen an increase in counselling by phone, email and even WhatsApp detected.
- More technological resources.
- AGEyR also organises annual recreational activities for its members, such as reunions of former emigrants at Christmas and holiday dinners, excursions to places in the province of Granada or Andalusia. To promote a sense of togetherness among emigrants and returnees.

▶ MAIN PROBLEM:

- ▶ The main problem is that there is no fixed annual government funding in the area of emigration and return.

▶ THANK YOU SO MUCH!
